

Code of Conduct and Ethics

(the “Code”)

Softball Canada has adopted the Universal Code of Conduct to Prevent and Address Maltreatment in Sport (“UCCMS”), as amended from time to time, which shall be incorporated into this Code by reference as if set out in full herein. Any modifications or amendments made to the UCCMS by the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (“SDRCC”) shall come into effect immediately upon their adoption by the SDRCC and automatically without the need for any further action by Softball Canada.

Softball Canada has designated specific Softball Canada Participants within Softball Canada as ‘UCCMS Participants’. A full list of designated individuals is available by contacting aballantyne@softball.ca.

It is important to note that the Code applies to all Softball Canada Participants, but not all Softball Canada Participants are UCCMS Participants and subject to the OSIC Process.

A. Purpose

1. The purpose of this Code is to ensure a safe and positive environment within the programs, activities, and Events of Softball Canada and its Members by making all Softball Canada Participants aware that there is an expectation, at all times, of appropriate behaviour consistent with Softball Canada’s core values, mission, and policies.
2. Softball Canada, its Members, and Softball Canada Participants support equal opportunity, prohibit discriminatory practices, and are committed to providing an environment in which all individuals can safely participate in sport and are treated with respect and fairness.

B. Application – General

3. This Code applies to the conduct of all Softball Canada Participants during the business, activities, and Events of Softball Canada and its Members including, but not limited to competitions, practices, evaluations, treatment, or consultations (e.g., massage therapy), training camps, travel associated with organizational activities, the office environment, and any meetings.
4. This Code also applies to the conduct of all Softball Canada Participants outside of the business, activities, and Events of Softball Canada and its Members when such conduct adversely affects Softball Canada’s relationships (and the work and sport environment) or is detrimental to the image and reputation of Softball Canada or a Member. Such applicability will be determined by Softball Canada or the relevant Member, as applicable, at its sole discretion.
5. In addition, this Policy will apply to breaches of the Code that occurred when the Softball Canada Participants involved interacted due to their mutual involvement in the sport or, if the breach occurred outside of the sport environment, if the breach has a serious and detrimental impact on the Individual(s).

6. This Code applies to Softball Canada Participants active in the sport or who have retired from the sport where any claim regarding a potential breach of this Code occurred when the Softball Canada Participants was active in the sport.
7. However, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the OSIC's policies and procedures, all incidents of Maltreatment involving Workers, may also be addressed pursuant to the processes set out in any applicable workplace policy. For greater certainty, where an allegation of misconduct is alleged to be a breach of a workplace policy and of the UCCMS, the matter may be referred for handling under the policies and procedures of the OSIC, provided the Worker is a UCCMS Participant, in addition to any applicable workplace policy.
